Simple Festival Traditions for Little Ones

Small rituals that become big memories · All ages

Young children don't need big celebrations. Small, repeated traditions are what they'll remember and look forward to year after year.

Ideas to choose from

- ○ Light one diya together (with adult hands on the flame)
- ○ Make a flower rangoli at the door
- ○ Choose one 'special sweet' to make together
- ○ Deliver sweets to a neighbour
- ○ Tell a simple festival story at bedtime
- ○ Take the same family photo in the same spot each year
- ○ Give away one toy to a child who needs it

Keep it calm

- ○ One or two visits per day
- ○ Naps and meals near normal times
- ○ A quiet corner at home

Safety

Keep children away from lit diyas and firecrackers, and dress them in cotton near flames.
