

LET ME TRY · FREE PRINTABLE

Festive Process Art for Toddlers

Diya painting and more · Ages 2–4

Process art focuses on exploring, not on a finished product. It builds creativity, fine-motor skills and confidence. Every result is 'right'.

Diya painting setup

- ○ Plain clay diyas
- ○ Washable poster paints in 3–4 colours
- ○ Chunky brushes, cotton buds, fingertips
- ○ Newspaper, an apron and a wet cloth

More festive process art

- ○ Finger-print toran on a strip of paper
- ○ Stick paper shapes on a cardboard lantern
- ○ Leaf and petal printing with paint
- ○ Torn-paper collage cards for family

What to say

- ○ “Tell me about your colours.”
- ○ “You made so many dots!”
- ○ Avoid fixing or redoing their work.

Safety

Use non-toxic paints, let diyas dry fully, and keep children away from lit flames and firecrackers.

SOURCES AND FURTHER READING

General early-childhood guidance on process-focused art.

Free to print and share.